The Iron County Outdoor Recreation Enthusiasts (ICORE) are a group of silent sports enthusiasts promoting the responsible use of land and water open to the public for the enjoyment of all, with the following goals:

- Promote non-motorized recreational activities on land and water.
- Enhance and expand silent outdoor recreational opportunities in and around Iron County, Wisconsin.
- Provide opportunities for volunteers to help support recreational development and maintenance on both land and water.
- Obtain grant monies to help finance the organizational purpose.
